

ESSENTIAL PROTECTIVE SERVICES FEE BYLAW

Rural Municipality of Prince Albert No. 461

BYLAW NO 13 of 2024

The Council of the R.M. of Prince Albert No. 461 in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

1. For the purpose of providing essential protection services, namely fire, police, bylaw enforcement and 911 Emergency support service, Council shall impose a fee in the amount of $500.00 on January 1st of the year the service is to be provided.
2. The estimated cost of the services referred to in clause 1 is $691,500.00
3. All dwellings or other buildings, including trailers, or bare land that will have the benefit of the service described in (1) above, shall be liable for such a special fee. This fee shall only be charges once per landowner, unless the said owner has rental dwelling(s) and has more than one occupied dwelling, not located on the same parcel of land or subdivided, which shall be subject to the essential service fee(s),
4. The special fee referred to in (1) above is to be levied on the lot or parcel on which the dwelling, other building or trailer for which the fee was imposed is situated.
5. Any person who considers that an error or omission was made in the application of the fee on his or her property may notify the municipality in writing requesting the council to review the imposition of the fee on the property in question.
6. The special fee referred to in (1) above is to be added to the tax roll and collected in the same manner as municipal taxes penalty provisions shall apply when they become due and payable.
5. Excess funds collected above the cost of providing the essential protection service will be transferred to a reserve to provide for future incurred costs.
